Gigantic Locomotives

Ten gisors for the Pennsylvanta Refiroad Company will be built this sammer at Altoons. They will be much larger and more powerful than ordinary passenger engines, and are to be built for the particular purpose of making up time on portions of the roads where there are ong stops. On the fast tu i between New York and Pailed applia, for its acce, the time al lowed is so store that when there are unusual stops, letting off and getting on passengers, the ordinary engines cannot make it up. Henne a monster locamotive, known on the road as "No. has been built as an experiment and tried on different trains to see what can be done. The result has been satisfac ory, but there are many improvements that auguest themselves which will be estried out in the cops ruction of the other heavy engines that are to tellow. In the slang of the railroad yard, No. 10 is known as 'Long legged 1000.' This c mes from the big driving wheels she rids upon, which stand six feet wheels she rid s upon, which stand six feet and six inches ab we therails, or higher than a tail man with a sik hat on. She has two pairs of drivers forced for her by Herr Krupp, the famous Cannon maker. In this is supposed to have been solved the highest aim that can be sought in a locomotive—to put the heaviest trains ever all grades against stiff winds and with the least opening the highest toward but here. with the least possible liability toward hot boxes or low steam on the quickest schedule time. Her on gineer says 'she koes like a bird and rides like a rocking chair." Ever since it has been running this engine has been making a mile in fity tow without getting house. She makes more than a mile a minute and "keeps cool." Of course there is a great consumption of fuel. In 180 miles 12 000 pounds of coal are used up. The water tank cost ing 3 000 gallons-4 0 more than is usually carried. Everything 618" is on a proportionately large scale only the delay in getting boilers sufficiently large has prevented the c mpin in of two others of nearly the same pattern .- Phila. Times

AN INDIAN SQUAW SACRIFICED -It is now stated, upon reliable authority, that the Indisos, at the burial of one of their tribe, in the Harmony Mountains, ic usily seer field a quiw on the grave of the deau brave. The Indians are very resident regarding the matter, but ado it that the squaw was a wich and had by her fluence with the evil spirit, caused the dea h of thur er five med of the tribe, excites whem she entertained same arudge. They believe the woman, who was a Bann ck, was to lengue with the evil one and by her spells and incarts tious e old bring sickness and death to those with whom she came to contact. The Indians say is has been the custom of their tribe from time immemirial to par such persons to death at the grave of one of their victims and think hey are justified in doing so. The woman, we learn, walked to the burying ground parteelly reconciled to her fate and made no attempt to get away. A few years ago a young squaw koown as Sasie Jane was proconneed a witch by the leading men of the tribe and sentenced to be cut to deach. On the wey to the place of execution she made her escape and left the town for a while. As so ludison died within a given time after her escape, it was thought that the evil spirit had been frightsord aw y and she was pardoned and permitted t) returo.
